Todd,

I note that — as new counsel in the case for Plaintiff Noorani — you have not filed an Amended Certificate of Interested Persons.

Thus, and as a professional courtesy, I would respectfully remind you that — if you have a contingency-fee interest in this case — you have an uncompromising duty to do so.

Best wishes,

Bob

Sounds good.

As you likely just saw, chambers reached out with dates. I have forwarded to my client and hope to be able to confirm which works for us by day's end.

Thanks.

Todd,

I am well.. and, you?

Please excuse my slight delay in responding, as I have been “tied-up” with an appellate brief — and, wherein I tend to focus, completely.

We have received further packaging samples (i.e., entailing the designated Pantone green shades) from the supplier. As we represented to the Magistrate Judge, we will show these to His Honor — and, specifically, in order to verify the representations as to fact made by AB at the prior session of the mediation. Please advise as to when you can be available for another mediation session.

I would recommend a time during the first week after Thanksgiving — if that proves to be available to you and to the Court.

Best wishes,

Bob
